

WELCOME TO THE SCOUT HOUSE IN LILLESAND

Welcome to the Scout house in Lillesand. This house was built in 1926 by 1st Lillesand scout troop, and has been in the scouts' ownership since then. The exception was the war years 1941-1945 when the Nazis confiscated the house, and the scout movement was banned in Norway.

Today the Scout house is used by the Lillesand Scout and Guide troop for weekly scout meetings. The house is for rent during the summer months and on weekends.

Lillesand Scout group was founded on 23rd April 1913. This was only six years after the Scout movement was founded in England in 1907, by Sir Robert Baden-Powell. The Lillesand Scout group is therefore one of the oldest scout groups in the country and has a long and interesting history. In connection with the 100th anniversary of Lillesand Scout group in 2013, a book was written about the history of scouting in Lillesand. This book can be purchased for 200 NOK by contacting the Scout group: post@lillesandspeider.com
